

I put my name on DO NOT CALL list for a reason, not to get telemarketer calls. Why would I want the bank to call. They are not any different than telemarketers. If banks want to promote their services do it through the mail. If the FCC lets the banks call can our name be taken off of their call list?
Marie Smith